

Moving beyond the binaries?

A brief history and introduction to bisexual, pansexual, and plurisexual identities by Nikki Hayfield.

Nikki Hayfield is a qualitative researcher and Senior Lecturer in Social Psychology at UWE Bristol.

Celebrate Bi Visibility Day 2020 by joining the webinar, hosted by the Diversity Trust and UWE Bristol, on Wednesday 23 September 2020 at 2pm.

Over the last 100+ years understandings of sexualities have been evolving and the last ten years have seen a significant increase in people identifying with bisexuality and pansexuality, alongside other terms which relate to attraction to multiple genders, or regardless of gender. This talk maps a brief history of bisexuality and pansexuality and how they might challenge the binaries of sex and sexuality.
