

Diversity in Practice: Working with Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Trans (LGBT+) Communities

Course Overview

An online workshop suitable for anyone working in the private and corporate, public or non-profit sectors. The workshop explores the history of the LGBT+ community as well as language, terminology, discrimination and definitions.

Course Aims

To help organisations improve the services they deliver to Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT+) people. To explore good practice for working within a context of equality, diversity and inclusion.

The course includes:

- An overview of key legislation relevant to sexual orientation and gender identity
- Timeline of LGBT rights in the UK
- Law reform including the current legal framework
- The social climate for LGBT people
- Impact of hate crime and discrimination
- How to build LGBT inclusive organisations

Learning Outcomes

Delegates of training sessions report:

- A greater understanding of the barriers LGBT+ people experience in accessing services and support
- Increased awareness of best practice, and available tools, for reaching and engaging LGBT+ people and communities
- They know more about the sources of specialist support available for LGBT+ people
- They feel confident to share their knowledge, best practice and ways to engage with LGBT+ people
