

The Diversity Trust Autumn Newsletter

We're still making an impact!

Our Autumn newsletter is bursting with highlights and positive stories for reflection and inspiration. As the nights draw in and the temperature starts to drop, we look back on some of our highlights, as we continue to influence social change for a fairer society.

We've published our latest Impact Report detailing how and where we've made a difference for the last financial year. Full of positivity and achievements, the report shows what an impact we can have with support from our clients, partners, and friends.

Spotlight on... Our AGM

The team held our AGM in London on Friday 14th October and shared our thoughts and ideas on the past and future years. Berkeley Wilde, our Founder, addressed the team, outlining some of the highlights and successes.

“As our global reach and impact continues, we’ve developed partnerships with organisations including the Asian Leadership Collective and the India Diversity Forum based in Mumbai ... Across all our courses and events we delivered 464 programs, with over 13k participants!”

We’ve started tendering for new opportunities and have quite a few successes recently. What’s exciting about some of this work is it’s the new areas of work we are developing, for example, one project is focused on awareness raising with 4000 global managers on domestic violence and abuse. They chose our bid because we were the most intersectional.”

Spotlight on... World Aids Day!

World AIDS Day is an annual event held on 1 December. It is an opportunity for people worldwide to unite in the fight against HIV, to show support for people living with HIV, and to commemorate those who have died from an AIDS-related illness.

Brigstowe, one of our incredible partners, has been delivering HIV specialist services in Bristol and the surrounding areas for over 25 years. This year, the team has once again put together an amazing programme of events including talks, refreshments and even a radio take-over!

We need you!

This World AIDS Day (Dec 1st) Brigstowe will be at Bristol Temple Meads train station, raising awareness, handing out ribbons and most importantly raising vital funds with collection buckets. Could you spare a couple of hours between 7am - 7pm to join the team? If so, please email: info@brigstowe.org

The full programme of events can be viewed here.

Spotlight on... Our Latest Guest Blog

Read our latest blog by Jennifer Scott, from Spiritfinder.org. She offers practical ways and tips that you can follow to help take ownership of your medical care. Whether you have an ongoing condition or are discovering new medical needs, there are some small things you can do that may make a big difference.
